EID MUBARAK

The first day after the month of fasting is called 'EID AL FITR'. It translates as "Festival of Breaking the Fast" and begins celebration marking the end of Ramadan. It is a time of prayer, feasts, gifts, and charitable giving. The festival is public holiday and usually lasts around 3-4 days. This year, the declaration of the Eid break depends on the sighting of the next crescent moon. Outpost UAE Iraq wishes everyone a happy Eid celebrations and holidays!

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAMME

To help manage life's challenges as and when they arise, this personal support service provides free and unlimited access to a range of specialist support and information, available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Both staff and their immediate family members can make use of the Lyra Wellbeing (formerly ICAS) Employee Assistance Programme, a personal support programme. The service provides free access to telephone counseling and a life management and health information website. EAP is designed to provide a quick, confidential and effective way of accessing specialist information and support related to everyday issues. Please find more information about this service on the Outpost website here.

Throughout the year, the program is offering monthly webinars to employees and their families.

The next one comes up on April 17, 2024, and is available for registration both in Arabic and English.
